

The Richard Hall Symposium 2022:
Hoards in the North: northern identities in Viking hoards
Sunday 22nd May 2022, York St John University, York

9am - Registration and hot drinks

9.45am - Introduction and opening remarks:

Chris Tuckley, York Archaeological Trust

9.55am - Gareth Williams, British Museum – *Hoards and identities in Viking Northumbria

10.50am - Comfort break

11am – Martin Goldberg, National Museums Scotland - *Complex identities and the Galloway Hoard

11.55pm - Comfort Break

12.05pm – Lucy Moore, University of York - *Hoards and hoarding in Anglian Northumbria

1pm – Lunch

Please note: the afternoon sessions will be delivered remotely via videolink

2pm – John Sheehan, University College Cork - *Some hoards from Ireland, the Irish Sea Region and Northern England: connections and identities

2.55pm – Refreshments

3.25pm - Allison Fox, Manx National Heritage - “Well-filled with Treasure”: The Isle of Man’s Viking Age Hoards

4.20pm - Questions for Speakers

5pm – End

Pre-booking essential

<https://jorvikvikingfestival.co.uk/events/richard-hall-symposium/>